

Press Release:

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Kool Boiz Foundation Hosts Their Annual New Year's Eve Benefit Party

Proceeds support the College Scholarships and Mentoring Programs

Youngstown, Ohio, December 22, 2017 – The Kool Boiz Foundation, a non-profit organization focused on empowering young men through college scholarships and mentoring programs, is hosting their annual New Year's Eve Benefit Party on Sunday, December 31, 2017 at the Holiday Inn Boardman. Doors open at 7:30 pm and dinner will be served at 8:30 pm. Tickets are $75 per person or $130 per couple. All proceeds go toward the Kool Boiz Foundation College Scholarship Fund and Mentoring Programs for African-American males in the Youngstown, Ohio area.

The New Year's Eve Party, a party for a purpose, will feature dinner, a 2-hour open bar, music by the Nathan James Review, dancing, and a midnight champagne toast.

"Our goal is to raise money for college scholarships, mentoring programs, and youth conferences, as well as other programs to help increase knowledge, wisdom, and understanding. Last year's event was very successful and this year is shaping up to be even better", said Bruce Rushton, President of the Board.

Tickets are on sale now and can be purchase by calling Scott Washington at 330-651-1069 or by going online at www.koolboizfoundation.org.

The Kool Boiz Foundation was founded in 2015. The organization is dedicated to providing educational, financial, and emotional support for at-risk adolescent males in urban communities. The organization's Board of Directors consists of current and former residents of Youngstown, Ohio who decided to form an organization with the sole purpose of giving back to the community that helped make them successful.

#

Contact Information:

Kool Boiz Foundation

Bruce Rushton

President and CEO

bruce.rushton@koolboizfoundation.org

614-404-2396